

Abstract

A new distinct cultivar of Euphorbia milii plant named 'Helena', particularly characterized by its compact plant habit; very dense and bushy plant form; moderate growth habit; smaller flowers on longer, thinner peduncles; abundant, large floral cymes with white bracts with light green tips; few and small thorns.

5